About the show

We are so pleased to welcome eight local artists to The Mill Yard's inaugural show at Stonebridge Lofts in downtown Minneapolis. Come celebrate with us and support great art in our newly remodeled lobby.

About The Mill Yard at Stonebridge Lofts

The Mill City. Residents celebrate our area's industrial heritage of the mighty Mississippi River and the mills. Today, what we see are the most recognizable Minneapolis landmarks. However, this is only part of the story. Rail lines were key to Minneapolis' growth and were integral to the Mill District, bringing in wheat and timber and shipping out flour and lumber. In our name, we honor both the history of the mills and the rail lines. The Mill Yard aims to be both a gathering place for art and artists and a conduit for art to be shared and enjoyed by the wider community.

Artist's Conversations

Join us on the following Sundays at 4 pm in the Stonebridge Lofts Lobby Lounge. Meet the artists and ask them about their work, creative thinking process, inspiration, etc.
